

DEPARTMENT OF PSYCHOLOGY

Department of Psychology offers two subsidiary papers such as Abnormal Psychology and Social Psychology to the BA Philosophy course started in 1947. Calicut University accepted the CCSS BA programme in 2009 and the Department of Psychology offered two complementary courses each in the I, II, III & IV Semesters of the BA Philosophy programme. In 2019 Calicut University accepted the revised scheme of CUCBCSS, Psychology offered four complementary courses in Complementary I (Applied Psychology) and four complementary courses in Complementary II (General Psychology) in the I, II, III & IV Semesters of BA Philosophy programme onwards. The name of the papers offered are Psychological Processes, Social Behaviour, Abnormal Behaviour and Lifespan development & Health Psychology in semester I, II, III & IV respectively.

FACULTY ROOM

SMART CLASSROOM

WHAT AGGRESSION IS NOT

-Aggression is not competitiveness, nor is it anger. Competitiveness is an attitude, anger is an emotion. While aggression is a behaviour, behaviour which accidentally harms someone is not aggression.