Programme Objectives	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. To have the students pay their respects and prayers to the biggest name in Indian playback singing; Latha Mangeshkar. 2. To celebrate the World Music Day in vogue, and to get the students to interact with eminent musicians during the same.
Programme Outcome	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The students paid their tributes to the legendary Nightingale of India. The students were motivated to revisit the classics rendered by the great singer, and obtain inspiration from her dedicated life. 2. The students got a feel of how literature and music are intertwined to produce the greatest of all arts humankind has ever explored. The students were also deeply moved and entertained by the amazing flutist, and loved the session and his music too.
About The Programme	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The program was conducted finely, and had the faculty reminiscing of their childhoods when Lara Mangeshkar ruled Indian cinema. The students went through the life and living of Lata Mangeshkar, both personally and musically, and some of the teachers and even students had their eyes filled as the session went on. 2. The lecdem that Mr. Bijibal provided the students with, was very relevant to the era when lyrics are losing importance and their meanings are getting blurred. The interactive session with such an outgoing musician as Sri Palakkad Sreeram proved the most fruitful to the students.
