Kadammanitta Vasudevan Pillai can be called as the living legend in handling the very rare ritualistic art form – Padayani. Obviously, the class had taken the audience to the minute intricacies of Padayani, showing how the words are framed or beautifully knitted inside the different talas used in Padayani, revealing the similarities in the rhythms used in Padayani as well as in Carnatic Music. The session was highly interactive and informative and it extended for 1 ½ hours upto 11.30 am and wound up with a light tea break.

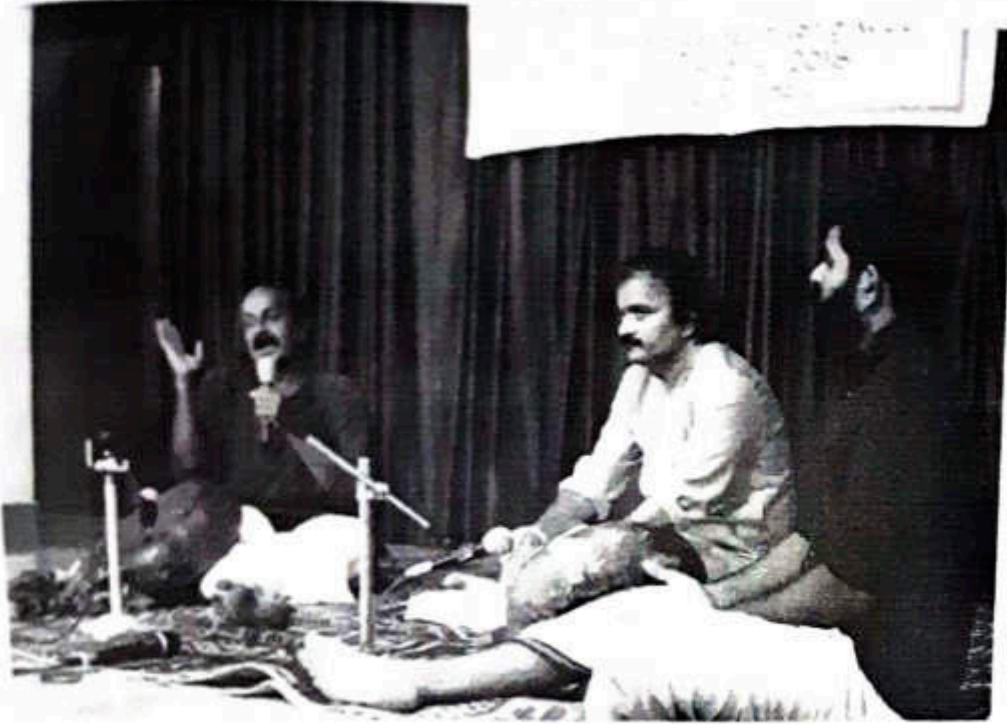

Session 2 on 09/10/2018

The second session started at 11.45 a.m, was jointly handled by Shri. Kadammanitta Anu V. Sudev, renowned Padayani exponent, playback singer and Kerala Sangita Nataka Academy Award winner and Shri. Kadammanitta D. Raghu Kumar, renowned Padayani exponent on the same topic of Padayani specializing the rendering of tala along with percussion instruments used in it . They have given a practical demonstration of tala element by performing on 'Thappu', the particular percussion instrument used in Padayani and it was really a visual treat for the students as well as the teachers and the other audience gathered, on how Padayani is performed along with 'Thappu'. The session ended with half an hour lunch break.
